BIG RICH BROCK COMEDY

A former pastor, "Big Rich" brings his preacher persona to the stage with his clean comedy.

A lifelong Southerner, "Little Richie" was born and raised in Chickamauga, GA, where he learned the power of humor, the art of storytelling and connecting with people.

Rich shares his life experiences of being raised in the 1900's, 25+ years of ministry, marriage, divorce, career changes, parenting and dating again all with a big smile and an "enjoying life" attitude.

On his 54th birthday Rich began to pursue his dream of comedy by performing at his first amateur night. After doing five open mics, he decided to turn pro.

Rich uses his ministry experience to promote, produce and headline his own 90 minute shows and in his first year, performed 50+ paid shows at venues including wineries, breweries, theaters, dinner shows, corporate events, fundraisers and private shows.

This year is full steam ahead for Big Rich Comedy with shows scheduled through out the southeast, and he has been signed to perform his first special on Season #12 of Dry Bar Comedy.
